

LEBANON OPERA HOUSE

Explore the performing arts.
See how it all comes together.
Meet our audiences—your community...

BECOME A VOLUNTEER

Volunteers are the front line representatives of Lebanon Opera House, ensuring that audiences enjoy a safe and comfortable experience.

You will play several important roles at LOH:

- ◆ Patron Services — welcoming and directing visitors, answering their questions
- ◆ Box Office Assistance — scanning tickets, distributing tickets at the will call booth
- ◆ Ushering — assisting patrons to their seats, ensuring house rules are followed

HOW TO REGISTER

1. Complete the form on the back of this sheet.
2. Attend the next orientation session.
3. Sign up for shows!

What types of people volunteer at LOH?

The volunteer community at LOH includes people young and old from all walks of life and backgrounds.

What are the time commitments involved?

Volunteers arrive one hour before each performance and generally stay half an hour later.

Special event schedules vary, but volunteers can expect several opportunities throughout the year.

Most showtimes are in the evening, with youth performances and school shows in the morning.

What can I expect from orientation?

- ◆ Knowledge of the theater's layout, design and rich history.
- ◆ An understanding of how front-of-house and box office systems work.
- ◆ Crowd management techniques.
- ◆ In-depth training on specific roles and functions.

Will I get to see the shows?

You will have many opportunities to enjoy performances at LOH. But remember, as a volunteer your focus should be on the patrons and their experience.
