

LOH Is the Art & Soul of the Upper Valley.

If the Upper Valley is to have heart, it must also have art.
One cannot exist without the other.

Art brings emotion. Art creates excitement.
Art is what helps us and what heals us.
Art is love, the ultimate expression of the human condition.

At Lebanon Opera House, art comes alive on our stage.
As performers sing, and dance, and tell stories, and crack jokes,
art fills the heart of our community
and replenishes the soul of our audience.

LOH is the lifeblood of the Upper Valley,
and each beat of our heart is an opportunity to find others who feel that same passion and connection.

Art and soul are precious resources
sustained by the creativity of our performers,
the hard work of our staff and volunteers,
and the hard-earned dollars of our supporters.

When they all come together,
art and soul flow forth from our stage,
through our aisles, out our doors, down the streets,
and into every heart in the Upper Valley.
